

Pinky

& THE ROYAL PARADE

A BRAND NEW CHILDREN'S BOOK
CREATED BY
TINA FREEMAN & CHRISTOPHER COPNER

● STOP ● PRESS ● ...

THE FAB FOUR COME TO LIVERPOOL.

As part of Road Safety Week, pupils from St. Vincent's Visually impaired school in Liverpool led the way down Mathews Street to raise awareness for The Brake Charity.

Dressed as The Fab Fourhundreds and Thousands road safety mascots the staff and pupils entered the Cavern Club.

The fab neon lollys are characters in a brand new children's book "Pinky and The Royal Parade." Pinky is a lovable Vintage Ice Cream Van who teaches the basics of road safety. Author and Illustrator of the Abbey Road into a book about road safety."

With The Lord Mayor of Liverpool in attendance, they posed for photos at the Cilla statue. Tina has been working with the children for a few years, "We have some big ideas for 2020 to help promote the 20 is Plenty Campaign. We want to urge drivers to slow down in twenty miles an hour zones."

It wasn't the first time the children had been inside the Cavern club. The St Vincents VI choir had performed a show there with American band East of Eli who have their names on a brick on the wall of fame. It seemed fitting to have the parade within the safety of the famous pedestrianised street.

This year Ardman Animations' Timmy Time have joined forces with The Brake Charity. Tina had spent the morning reading Pinky and teaching pre school children road safety basics. The kids loved dressing up as Timmy Time sheep for Beep Beep Day.

Beep, Beep,
Beep, Beep,
Yeah!

book Tina Freeman explained how the inspiration came about, "I am a huge fan of the Beatles, I felt I had to put worlds' most famous Zebra crossing at

For more information on Pinky & the Royal Parade please email info@pinkyandfriends.co.uk or visit our Facebook page. www.facebook.com/pinkyandfriendsroadsafety

Pinky

& THE ROYAL PARADE

A BRAND NEW CHILDREN'S BOOK
CREATED BY
TINA FREEMAN & CHRISTOPHER COPNER

● STOP ● PRESS ● ...

THE LAMB-BRETTA CLUB OF GREAT BRITAIN.

The LAMB-bretta club of Great Britain were at Walsall Scooter Parts Fair as part of Road Safety Week.

The little Timmy Time Lambs collected donations from kind hearted scooterists for The Brake Charity.

Brake supports families who have had their lives affected by road accidents.

This year Aarman Animations Timmy Time have joined forces with Brake to help teach Road Safety basics to children. Kids are encouraged to hold Beep Beep! Days to raise money and road awareness.

her new road safety book "Pinky and The Royal Parade" and holding Beep Beep events.

Teaming up with her pal Johnny Bradley from 'Mods Of Your Generation' they have been raising awareness for Brake in a fun memorable way.

Last year at Walsall Kev Walsh parts fair Scooterists donned masks and capes to become Road Safety Superheroes. To everyone on our roads, take care out there.

Please visit Pinky and Friends on Facebook, or email...

Mods of Your Generation

To donate to The Brake Charity please visit....

TINA TO CONF

Artist and Illustrator Tina Freeman has been travelling around the country this week reading

For more information on Pinky & the Royal Parade please email info@pinkyandfriends.co.uk or visit our Facebook page. www.facebook.com/pinkyandfriendsroadsafety

