Dear Parent/Carer,

Next week marks Anti-Bullying Week, and we're kicking it off with Odd Socks Day on Monday 10th November!

Odd Socks Day is a fun and simple way to celebrate what makes us all unique and to remind everyone that being different is something to be proud of. All you need to do is wear your brightest, boldest, most mismatched socks to school on the day!

There's no need to buy anything new — just pull out your odd socks and join in. It's a great opportunity to start conversations about kindness, inclusion, and celebrating individuality. Some of our school sayings are 'In a world where you can be anything, be kind' and 'Kindness is the key to all hearts'.

Let's make Monday a colourful reminder that we're all different, and that's what makes our St. Vincent's community so special and kind, we all have the 'Power for Good'.

Thank you for supporting Anti-Bullying Week and helping us spread the message: "Make a noise about bullying — everyone deserves to feel safe and valued."

Warm regards,

Mr D Swanston
