

A JOURNEY FOR PEACE

St. Vincent's
Comic 6

The St Vincent's gang made their way towards Abercrombie Square

This man at the front is Noel Chavasse, hes carrying wounded soldiers... that seems like something a hero would do!

wow, he must be pretty brave!

I think its just Noel Chavasse we need to talk to...

well everyone, you know the drill!

Everyone touched the Noel Chavasse statue and their energy began to flow into it!

Cool, a purple glow!

There was a vibrant flash of purple, and Noel Chavasse came to life!

Something on Noel Chavasse's shirt
'pinged!'

wow!, what's that?

These are my Victoria Crosses...
Who are you lot?

we are from St Vincent's and we're trying to restore the Peace Emblem.

We were hoping you could help us!

hang on, did you just say Victoria Crosses? Aren't those things super rare?

And woah, Noel Chavasse has two of them! He must have done something really amazing!

During WW1, the military awarded me two Victoria Crosses for 'Most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty'. I prefer to think I received them for doing my duty as a doctor whilst helping my fellow man.

Noel Chavasse really is someone to look up to!

Yes! what a hero!

Legendary soldier Noel Chavasse! We must ask you a question...

How can we find peace?

listen very carefully...

Look after those who are less fortunate than you.
Look after your fellow man.

Being Brave is about looking out for others.

If you are more
fortunate than others,
help them

DID YOU KNOW?

Noel Chavasse is one of only three people to be awarded the Victoria Cross twice making him one of the most highly decorated officers of the First World War. The Victoria Cross is awarded for outstanding bravery.

Chavasse is believed to be commemorated by more war memorials in the UK than any other individual, in fact, sixteen Noel Chavasse memorials are currently recorded.

Chavasse sadly died of the wounds he received whilst saving others.

Noel Godfrey Chavasse

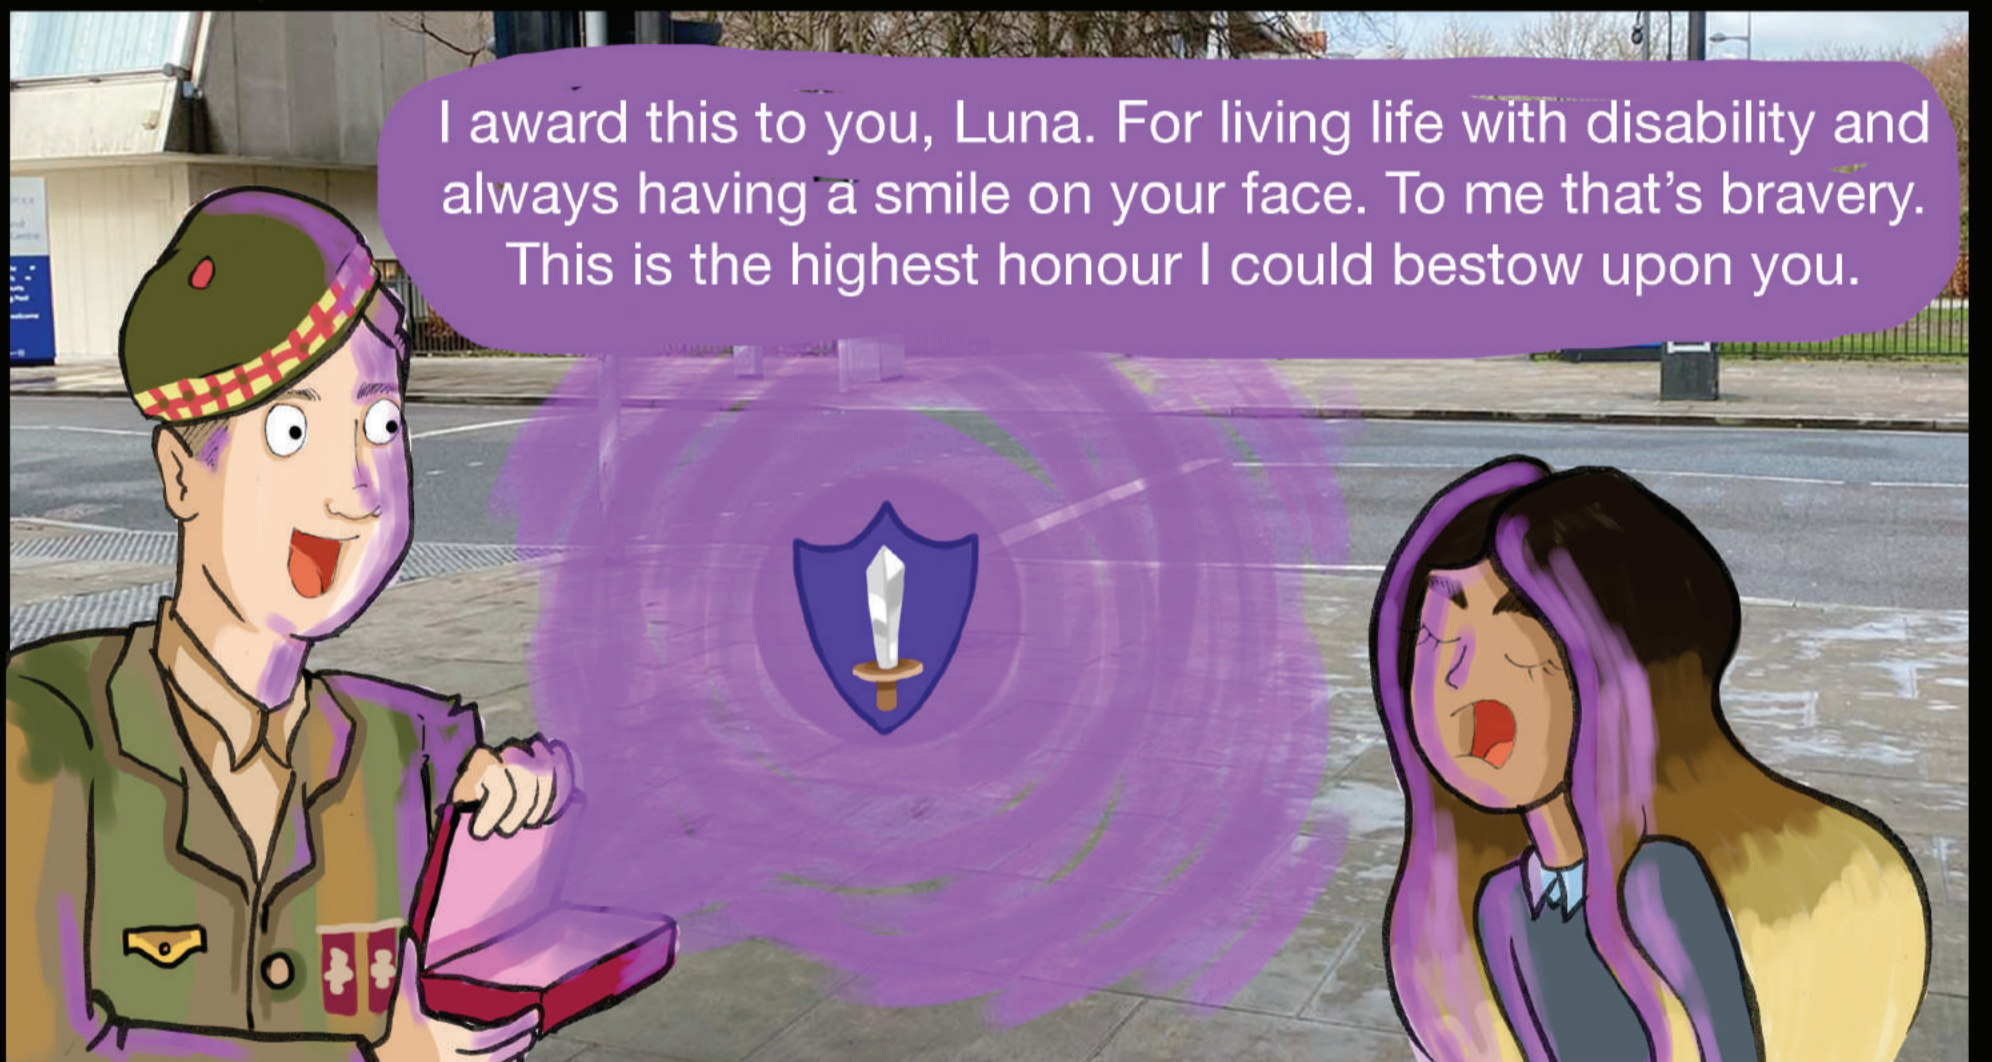

9th November 1884 –
4th August 1917

Wow, Noel Chavasse is really someone to look up to!

Were lucky to have such a brave man from Liverpool!

What an amazing person!

I award this to you, Luna. For living life with disability and always having a smile on your face. To me that's bravery. This is the highest honour I could bestow upon you.

Wow, Noel Chavasse has given me the key of bravery! What an honour!

Looks like we only need one more key!

Lets go and get our last key!
