Learning Objectives:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Consolidation of prior learning of common religious belief of battle between good and evil. 2. Pupils to reread and demonstrate understanding of at least 2 important New Testament passages and the view of God they promote. 3. Pupils to link words, actions and achievements of our Liverpool heroes John Hulley and Ken Dodd to these New Testament passages in discussion and in writing.
Key Teaching Points / Research Opportunities	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. In this Comic series, the pupils and Principal of St. Vincent's are searching for the physical and metaphorical keys to peace. Their adventures and encounters with Liverpool heroes exemplify the battle between Good and Evil, Light and Darkness, Order and Chaos and the consequences of this. 2. Use of Sources of Authority- New Testament of the Bible John 10:10 (John Hulley), St. Paul's letter to the Philippians 4:4 (Ken Dodd) 3. Making links between Gospel values and real people's lives and struggles.
Independent Work	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Pupils to read all 7 comics (or have them read to them). 2. Pupils focus on comics 1 and 2- reading them aloud in groups and discussing them- differentiated questions from teacher to be provided and then discussed and answered by pupils orally and in note form. All responses to be fed back to whole class. 3. Each pupil to produce a piece of writing showing understanding of link between Gospel values as in John 10:10 and Philippians 4:4. Writing activity to be differentiated- some pupils may answer direct questions, others use a writing frame with key words provided, others write independently 2 paragraphs.
Plenary	Fun activity first listening to and then singing songs reflecting values and achievements of each of our 2 heroes eg 'One moment in time' John Hulley and 'Happiness' Ken Dodd.
