Dear Parents,

We have felt for some time that our Mission Statement needed to be updated and that we would like to have a memorable strap-line which summarises the core values of our vision. To this end, we consulted staff and pupil groups and have composed a new Mission Statement with the strap-line 'Love, live, learn, grow'. Staff and pupils have been informed and last week took part in an assembly introducing the revised Mission Statement. Its values were shown to be Gospel values through a pupil-led commentary on the Parable of the Mustard Seed from the Gospel of Mark 4:30-32.

Please find the new Mission statement enclosed.

Yours sincerely
